

LOUISVILLE JAZZ WORKSHOP
BRAZILIAN JAZZ MINI-WORKSHOP
July 2 & 3, 2022

The Brazilian Jazz Mini-Workshop is designed provide students with an introduction to the wide range of Brazilian rhythms and how to utilize within a jazz context. The workshop will provide a history of Brazilian music, composers and performers. How jazz influenced Brazilian musicians and how Brazilian music influenced jazz. Students will have the opportunity to experience performing Brazilian rhythms and repertoire in a combo setting. There will be a hands-on percussion class where all will experience performing numerous Brazilian rhythmic figures – Bossa, Samba, Baião, Partido-alto, Choro and more.

Faculty:

Mike Tracy – Saxophone

Diego Lyra – Piano

Kiko Sebrian – Drum Set, Percussion

Diego Jose da Silva – Drum Set, Percussion

Special virtual guest artists:

Pedrinho Augusto – Percussion

Hamilton Pinheiro – Bass

Tentative Schedule
Saturday & Sunday prior to the Louisville Jazz Workshop

Saturday, July 2

9:00 – 10:15 Introduction to Brazilian Music and Musicians
listening session

10:30 – 11:30 Hands-on Brazilian Rhythm Class

11:45 – 1:00 Group Performance

1:00 – 2:30 Lunch/Practice

2:30 – 4:00 Group Performance

4:00 – 4:15 coffee break/individual practice

4:30 – 5:30 Group Performance

6:00 – 7:30 Dinner

7:30 – 9:00 Possible jam session

Sunday, July 3

9:00 – 10:00 More Brazilian Music and Musicians
listening session

10:00 – 11:30 Hands-on Brazilian Rhythm Class

11:45 – 1:00 Group Performance

1:00 – 2:15 Lunch/Practice

2:30 - 3:30 Group Performance